

Dedication to Dr. John Dennison

We would like to dedicate this volume of CJHE-RCES in memory of Dr. John Dennison, who passed away June 26, 2016. Dr. Dennison was a visionary and leader in higher education in Canada. His scholarship was vast and encompassed the development, mandate, and structures of post-secondary education in Canada. He was a pioneer of research on community colleges. Through his leadership, scholarship, and service, Dr. Dennison made extraordinary contributions to student mobility and transfer within and beyond the British Columbia post-secondary system. We also acknowledge the impact Dr. Dennison had on graduate students, colleagues, and researchers in relation to Canadian higher education. To honour his legacy, we have provided a list of his scholarship published in the Journal over his career so that our readers can further appreciate the depth of his contributions to Canadian higher education.
